Turkish Philanthropy Funds is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Turkish Philanthropy Funds receives contributions from various donors which become subject to the control of Turkish Philanthropy Funds. Turkish Philanthropy Funds, in its discretion, may contribute property from time to time to Morgan Stanley GIFT for the purposes of establishing "private label" donor advised funds in the name of Turkish Philanthropy Funds' own donors. Morgan Stanley GIFT is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is the sponsor of a donor advised fund. Various divisions of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, LLC provide investment management and administrative services to Morgan Stanley GIFT.

All contributions to Turkish Philanthropy Funds are irrevocable and non-refundable. Contributions and all related future earnings, including any income and appreciation thereon, are no longer the donor's assets; they are the property of Turkish Philanthropy Funds. While we believe that a private label donor advised fund provides a valuable philanthropic opportunity, contributions for such funds are not appropriate for everyone. Please see the Donor Circular for more complete information on the Turkish Philanthropy Funds private label donor advised fund, including a description of risks, fees and expenses.

By signing this form, I request that Turkish Philanthropy Funds use my donation to make an additional contribution to my account named in this agreement, the administration of which is governed by an existing Donor Contribution Agreement. I have received the Donor Circular and I understand that I am responsible for reading it. I agree to be legally bound by the Donor Circular's terms and conditions, as currently in effect and as amended from time to time, and the terms and conditions set forth in all related forms.

I understand that any contributions I make to Turkish Philanthropy Funds are irrevocable and are nonrefundable to me for any reason. I realize that all dividends, interest, capital gains, or any other distributions generated from my donation belong to Turkish Philanthropy Funds. Therefore, I cannot and will not claim that income as an additional tax deduction. Once my donation has been accepted, it is the property of Turkish Philanthropy Funds. I understand that Turkish Philanthropy Funds is under no obligation to make grants to a donor advised fund maintained by Morgan Stanley GIFT or any other sponsoring organization. I understand that Morgan Stanley GIFT investments could sustain a loss which would lead to there being less money to donate than Morgan Stanley GIFT originally received from Turkish Philanthropy Funds. I am aware that any recommendations I suggest will be considered but are subject to final approval by the Board of Directors of Morgan Stanley GIFT, concerning the investment selections, grants and award to any charitable organization.

I understand that the Select UMA Investment Pools and Money Market pool may lose money.

I understand that market conditions may affect the actual contributed amount.

To the best of my knowledge, all information enclosed is accurate and I will immediately notify Turkish Philanthropy Funds if any changes occur.
